Newsletter Editor Report
Lisa Mecklenberg Jackson (Helena, MT)
November 5, 2003

This is what I have been doing for the last three months. Meet Rane (pronounced Rain), left, and Anja (pronounced Anya) Jackson. They are very good babies and are already groovin' out to Elvis, their mother's favorite. SORRY-PICTURE DELETED.

Many thanks to Judy Zelenski who put together the July/August and September/October issues of the MPLA newsletter. She did a fantastic job. My goal for the upcoming year is to get each issue of the newsletter out in a much more timely fashion.

The deadline for the November/December 2003 newsletter was November 1, but I will be saving some room for conference photos that Webdaddy Dan will be taking. Hope you all have a great conference-wish I were there!

North Dakota is the featured state for the November issue. Feature articles include the MPLA award winners (and photos) and an article on the MPLA Leadership Institute. State news will be gleaned from the state reports already sent for the board meeting.

If anyone has any ideas for new features or columns for the newsletter, please let me know! Any and all ideas appreciated.
