Other Activities:

New membership applications are under development. They will be ready by July 1st, to coincide with the launching of our new institutional membership.

The committee prepared and distributed a survey to the 347 members who expired before January 1, 2017 and have not renewed. Some of these members have been expired for several years. Those who report they have moved out of state or have left libraries, will be flagged so that they do not receive additional communications from NMLA.

We will report the results of the survey for the next Board report.

The five-question survey is reproduced below:

NMLA Membership Update

Submitted by David Hurley, NMLA Membership Chair

As of July 1, our new institutional membership in NMLA comes with a great new benefit: Two complementary registrations at NMLA events during the membership year! This can be two registrations at our annual or mini conferences, or one registration at each. Any institutional member that joins or renews after July 1 is eligible. Membership costs $250 year and is open to libraries, library boards, friends groups, foundations, and other non-profit organizations that support libraries. Businesses selling products or services to libraries can still join as Commercial members, which includes advertising in our newsletter or conference program. A few frequently asked questions about the new membership:

Q. Do you have to know who will attend the conference when you join NMLA?

A. No, you can decide who will attend once conference registration ends. If you send one person to the annual conference, you can send a different person to the Mini.

Q. Does the conference registration have to be used by someone at the institution? A. No, if a Friends group wants to use their complementary registrations to send library staff to the conference, that's fine.
Q. Can my organization purchase membership by PO? A. Yes! You can purchase your membership by purchase order, check, credit card, or even PayPal. Full information is at nmla.org/membership
If you have any other questions, contact the Membership Committee at membership@nmla.org.

NMLA Membership Renewal Survey

1. We noticed your membership has expired and you haven't renewed. We're curious about why.

I have been meaning to renew. (Want to do it now? Here's a handy link to the online renewal page.)

I am retired, or no longer work in libraries. (Retired members and 'friends of libraries pay only $10 per year. We'd love to have you back.)

□ I no longer live in New Mexico.

D NMLA Membership is too expensive.

I did not find NMLA valuable.

I was unhappy or unsatisfied with my experience with NMLA.
